New York plans to legalize electric bicycles and scooters. Electric bicycle and scooter ridership is restricted to the ages of 16 and older. Cyclists of all ages and scooter riders under the age of 18 are required to wear helmets. The law will go into effect upon passage of the state budget, which will likely happen around April 1, 2020.